

Swingvasion Etiquette

- The front desk will be able to help with any questions. Head that way.
- If you feel uncomfortable, or unsafe, at any time for any reason, please speak to a crew member. If you are unsure who to approach, our designated contacts are Emily Anderson or Tim Goddard.
- Everyone is here to learn, but we all learn in our own way and, at our own pace. Please refrain from giving unsolicited advice or feedback, both in class and on the social floor. The exception to this is if you are feeling unsafe or have been hurt.
- We are lucky to have so many dancers from around NZ and further abroad. Try to ask as many people to dance as you can.
- Swing Central has a strong belief in consent culture. Please ask for a dance and don't take it personally if the answer is "no thank you". If we decline a dance, we always want to do so respectfully, but a "no thank you" is acceptable without any explanation.
- We want everyone to feel safe and have a good time. We have a zero tolerance policy, and you may be asked to leave for inappropriate behaviours including; inappropriate/sexual comments or jokes, unnecessary or unconsented physical contact, pursuing someone who has said no, or discrimination of any kind.
- This is an alcohol free event. There is strictly no glass permitted in the venue. However, juice and any other beverage contained in a sealable bottle is no problem. If you have a spillage, please seek help to clean it up yourself to save the person next to you standing from in it!
- Sickness can crop up at any time and we ask that you please stay home if you are unwell.
- Belongings and bags need to be kept out of the way. Please put them under a table or against the wall.
- Most importantly – lets have fun!!
