

Etiquette at Swingvasion 2023

- Any questions, the front desk will be able to help. Please head that way.
- If you feel uncomfortable, or unsafe, at any time for any reason, please speak to a crew member. If you are unsure who to approach, our designated contacts are Dani or Tim.
- Everyone is here to learn, but we all learn in our own way and, at our own pace. Please refrain from giving unsolicited advice or feedback, both in class and on the social floor. The exception to this is if you are feeling unsafe or have been hurt.
- We are spoilt for having so many people from around NZ and further abroad. Try to ask as many people to dance as you can.
- Swing Central has a strong belief of consent culture. Please ask for a dance and don't take it personally if the answer is "no thank you". If declining a dance, we always want to do so respectfully, but a "no thank you" is acceptable without any explanation.
- We want everyone to feel safe and have good time. We have a zero tolerance policy, and you may be asked to leave for inappropriate behaviours including; inappropriate/ sexual comments or jokes, unnecessary unconsented physical contact, pursuing someone who has said no or discrimination of any kind.
- This is an alcohol free event. There is strictly no glass permitted in the venue. However, juice and any other beverage contained in a sealable bottle is no problem. Please, if you have a spillage, seek help to clean it up yourself to save the person next to you standing in it!
- You will see we are near the ocean... Dani can't swim and will not rescue you. If you go in the ocean you are on your own.
- Sickness can crop up at anytime and we please ask that you stay home if you are not well.
- Belongings and bags can be popped in the internal stairwell.
- Most importantly – lets have fun!!
